

IP1

KNOB HANDLES SERIES IP1

Knob handle' series "IP1" cover a range of various sizes, spherical and taper with screwed in or pressed in mounting options, both fitted without or with on-off push button switches, with 1 or 4 electric contacts in normally open circuit.

Mounting rods of various sizes, standard and customized, are available, as well as cables and terminal pins or connectors to Customer specification.

"IP1" standard bodies are made in black thermoplastic material that is resistant to solvents, oils, greases and others chemical agents and it is suitable for low and high ambient temperatures and resistant to UV rays.

